BIG LUAU TOMORROW NIGHT
FOR BOTH DISTRICT WORKERS

One of the biggest luaus of the political campaign will be given tomorrow evening by the first, second, third, fourth and fifth precincts of the fourth district, on Punahou street, under a great tent between the Lanz and McDonald properties, and will be for the pleasure and entertainment of the delegates, workers and friends of both the fourth and fifth districts.

The idea is to get together the workers of the two districts for a good time, nearer understanding and better effectiveness in the final great work of the campaign.

Already has a huge tent been erected, so even if it happens to drizzle from the heavens, there will be no fear of anybody getting wet.

This tent will accommodate between eight hundred and a thousand feasters and the tables set beneath it will be loaded with the usual fare on necessities and luxuries which mark a genuine Hawaiian luau, pigs, chickens, fish, poi, and the score of smaller items which complete the rounded feast. The tent will be appropriately decorated, as will the tables. Music of the first order will be provided and there will be ample opportunity to enjoy speeches of every variety of wit, humor, argument and good advice.

While still the hundreds are eating the addresses of the various Republican candidates will enliven the entertainment.

RUMOR CHANGE IN REPUBLICAN
WORKERS UNTRUE

A rumor has floated into print to the effect that there was about to be a change in the management of the Republican campaign, including the statement that John C. Lane was to handle the fifth district. Bertram von Damm, in charge of the county campaign work for both districts, declared this morning that there was nothing in the rumor.

Mr. von Damm went on to say that the statement possibly arose from the fact that John Lane had volunteered to attend the executive committee meeting and to assist in certain work in different precincts, giving to the workers what assistance and advice he might be able to offer.

As far as A. D. Castro taking the management of affairs in the fourth district, which statement was published in the same rumor, it may be said that Mr. Castro is in a similar position.

The party managers are satisfied with the present workers, and the workers are satisfied with the managers, but all assistance is naturally welcome, especially that of volunteers.

ADDITIONAL ELECTION
INSPECTORS ARE NAMED

The following election inspectors were appointed today by the Governor for the Fifth representative district, on Oahu west of Nuanu street:

First precinct—Otto Ludloff, John Pohl and Joseph Adams.

Second precinct—Jas. Davis, Moses Akawa and John J. Matthews.

Third precinct—Archie E. Kabele, D. Kanakaoka and Joseph M. Keaunui.

Fourth precinct—R. T. Christofferson, H. K. Oana and Jno. K. Makee-lani.

Fifth precinct—Allen McKinnon, J. K. Mahoe and Johnathan Alam.

Sixth precinct—Wm. Weinrich Jr., Rudolph Kuller and David Kuhlman.

Eighth precinct—E. C. Smith, John Keppeler and Louis Kekumano.

Ninth precinct—Henry Cleveland, Henry Kapela and E. C. Bruns.

Tenth precinct—Wm. Ackermann, Simeon Nawaa and William Brede.

Eleventh precinct—Harry J. Auld, Peter Madio and Lapana Keawepoh.

Twelfth precinct—L. A. Perry, Henry Kua and Daniel Kealoa.

Thirteenth precinct—J. L. Fleming, D. L. Kalawala and W. L. Emory.

Fourteenth precinct—John K. Notley, Jno. C. Anderson and F. Luning.

Fifteenth precinct—Sylvester Akana, Herman Vessel and George K. Cypher.

Sixteenth precinct—W. M. Templeton, E. A. Davis and C. W. Cookson.

Seventeenth precinct—R. R. Cantin, N. M. Lord and J. Whaley.

Appointments for the Sixth precinct in this district probably will be made this afternoon.

CELEBRATE FADELESS
MEMORY OF NELSON

Members of the Honolulu Scottish Thistle Club and the lodge of the Sons of St. George held a joint celebration of "Fraser Day" in the rooms of the Kilohana Art League last night. Peter Tosh, chief of the Thistle Club, presided and H. A. Taylor, superintendent of Leahi Home, delivered the address of the evening on the life and achievements of Nelson, one of the greatest naval heroes of the ages. Being one of the most ardent students here of Nelson and his times, the lecturer held the rapt attention of the gathering from start to finish.

Thomas Harrington, acting British consul, and John M. Martin followed Mr. Taylor with short speeches.

LIBRARY BOARD NOW
COMPLETE IN NUMBER

Governor Frear this morning appointed J. R. Galt a member of the board of trustees of the Library of Hawaii, to succeed W. F. Dillingham, resigned. The Chief Executive recently appointed four members to this body to represent the Honolulu Library and Reading Room Association and the Hawaiian Historical Society respectively, which have handed over their books to the new organization.

The board is now complete and will meet soon to perfect its organization. The members are W. H. Babbitt, R. B. Anderson, J. R. Galt, A. Lewis, J. C. H. Atherton, P. L. Weaver and J. H. Fisher.

POLITICAL MUSINGS

J. Laulawa—Things, politically, look bright in Koolau.

J. Kamao—The straw votes cast last Saturday at the fishmarket were marked by the Democratic runners, who were paid to do the work.

W. H. Crawford—The meeting of the Republican party at Waialua last Saturday night was a great success. The Democrats were not in it.

Chas. Clark—I am busy working on the roads. The Republican leaders do not seek my political advice nowadays. I am not kicking, however.

U. Joseph—I used to be one of the hard workers of the Republican party, but since the leaders cut me out this time, I will knife the regular Republican nominees on election.

C. P. Laukea—The Republicans can not have a good political meeting without a luau. The Hawaiians will knife the Republican ticket, if the luau proposition is not continued.

D. Kalauokalani—The Home Rulers will have their say next Saturday evening at Aala Park. I hope to have a big turn-out. I am not sure about permitting the independent candidates to speak from the same platform that night.

S. K. Mahoe—The Republican candidates for legislative and county tickets are sure to win at the coming election in Waialua. The Democrats are trying hard to win the confidence of the voters there; but, it is too late for them to do anything now.

E. J. McCandless—There was some kind of trouble at the Democratic meeting at Waialua, last Saturday night. On that account we sent down there on a fast automobile, the Hon. H. M. Kaniho and G. K. Keawehaku. When they spoke to the voters, they settled down to listen to them.

DELUGE DAMPENS ARDOR OF REPUBLICAN ORATORS

It was a beautiful rain.

In fact it amounted almost to a bona coming in gusty downpours that swept across the city and harbor, flattening the turbulent small waves in the bay until the surface, from shore to shore, was smooth as glass. In the same manner it seemed to squelch the spirit of even the "sturdy stalwarts" of the Republican party, who were scheduled yesterday evening to step forth on beautifully draped platforms, under green banyan trees and send forth their warnings and advice to the proletariat.

At any rate the two meetings scheduled by the Republicans did not materialize, though the white are lights twinkled merrily at the appointed places, where newly-made stands, draped in bunting once gay but soon wilted and soggy, faced respectful groups of moist, tenantless chairs.

However, the faithful few will not be denied. They are going to try their luck again tonight and meetings are scheduled to be held at the corner of Luau and Punchbowl streets in the fourth precinct and at Waipahu and Ewa in the fifth. Last night's meetings were to have been held near the railway depot and at the head of the Emma street car line.

SARAH BERNHARDT
"DEATHS" REACH
TOTAL OF 50,000

LONDON, Sept. 30.—The fact that Madame Sarah Bernhardt's performances at the Coliseum Music Hall include a number of her favorite death scenes reminds us that an ingenious statistician some time ago computed the number of death scenes she had enacted.

Her deaths by self-administered poison, it was calculated, totalled well over 10,000; she had jumped into the scenic artists' Seine 7,000 times; had sent 5,000 bullets into her head with a revolver; stabbed herself as frequently as all the other deaths put together.

When asked on one occasion whether it were true that she kept a coffin at her house, she replied, "Certainly, and so would you if you were the morgue's most frequent customer."

Perhaps the uppermost question in the minds of the countless thousands who have admired the art and fallen under the glamour of the wonderful fascination of the "Divine Sarah" is: How does she do it? How does the peerless actress manage to retain perpetual youth?

Well, Madame Bernhardt has disclosed the formula of her elixir vitae. Eggs and shrimps!

"The simple life for me," was the conclusion of the interview who elicited the above information.

Marshall Black of the wrecked Palo Alto Building and Loan Association has been finally lodged in jail at San Jose. It was rumored that he was preparing to skip the country.
